Ex lieutenant governor Nelson of British Columbia died on March 3rd in England.

The act respecting the Alberta Railway & Coal Company has been read a third time.

President Cleveland's inaugural address made it quite clear that there will be sweeping changes in the U. S. tariff.

Alex. Lucas, immigration agent for the Northwest government in Toronto has secured 600 settlers for the Northwest.

By a vote of 36 to 1 the Manitoba legislature endorsed the memorial to the Dominion government asking the passage of a prohibitory liquor law.

Sir Hector Langevin, who was driven from the government by Tarte, M. P. will co-operate with the latter in arranging the government for its policy on the Manitoba school question.

The discussion of lieutenant governor Royal's travelling expenses occupied the time of parliament on Saturday. The feeling was that he should be paid by the Territories and be responsible to them.

D. J. Goggin, principal Normal schools in Manitoba has been offered $3,000 a year by the Northwest government, to accept the position of director of teacher's institutes and normal schools in the Northwest, together with the general supervision of education at Regina.

The report of Judge Wetmore on his enquiry into the charges against commissioner Herchmer was presented to parliament on Friday. A hasty examination shows that many of the charges were abandoned or struck out. Fourteen were proven in full and 23 in part. Some of those proven were the outcome of too much zeal on the part of the commissioner, others were mistaking laws, others were due to infirmity of temper, brusqueness of manner or hasty conduct, but not such as to effect Herchmer's business capacity or the efficiency of his management of the force. The report practically whitewashes Herchmer.

WINNIPEG, March 9.

Severe earthquake in Oregon.

The Sultan of Zanzibar is dead.

Another serious revolt has broken out in Houdtras.

In the Manitoba legislature a motion by Jerome to repeal the Manitoba school law was defeated by 41 to 4.

Harry Nash, farm instructor on the Piegan reserve near Macleod, was shot and stabbed recently but will recover.

Forth coming correspondence will, it is alleged, confirm Hon. Mr. Foster's statement regarding his conference with Blaine.

A great debate on the Manitoba school question has been going on in the commons for three days on Tarte's motion censuring the government for its action. The division is expected to-day. A liberal caucus was held on the 7th. The principal subjects discussed were Tarte's resolution of censure and McCarthy's trade resolutions which were submitted a few days ago. After much discussion it was decided to support Tarte's motion, although many declared their inability to endorse much of what Tarte had said in his speech.

A STEAMBOAT engine and boiler arrived on Thursday's train and was brought across the river by the Cartage Co. on Monday. It is from the Sherbrooke engine works and is the property of Bishop Girouard, of Mackenzie river. It is to be the motive power of a boat now being built to ply on the waters of the Mackenzie river between Fort Smith and the Arctic ocean and on the waters of Great Slave lake. It is a propeller. Last year Bishop Girouard built a steamer to run on the Athabasca from Fort McMurray to Fort Smith and on Lake Athabasca. These are the waters on which H. B. steamers Grahame and Wrigley now ply. Larue & Picard have the contract of freighting the machinery to the Athabasca Landing.

On Wednesday morning as W. D. Matheson was standing in John Cameron's mill, he happened to look up and saw flame and smoke through a stove pipe hole in the upper floor. Rushing up stairs he found that the boards and paper of the ceiling of the upper story had caught fire from a stove pipe and begun to burn briskly. He gave the alarm of fire from the upper window, and then rushed for water with which he managed to dash the fire out before the arrival of the chemical engine, which, however, was on the ground within two minutes from the sounding of the alarm. No damage was done, but it was a very narrow escape, for if a couple of minutes more had elapsed a large quantity of goods must have been damaged, even if the fire could have been controlled.

The Edmonton Milling Co's mill, South Edmonton began grinding on Monday. The machinery worked to perfection from the start. For the present and until the mill has run some little time only straight grade flour will be made, that is flour which has not been separated into its different grades. R. Ritchie, manager, says that as the wheat here is harder than that of Manitoba a change of bolting cloth may be necessary before commencing to turn out the several grades of flour. This mill will not do gristing or exchanging flour for wheat on a basis of pounds to the bushel, as is done in some mills. Farmers desiring to exchange wheat for flour will have a cash value placed upon their wheat and will receive an equivalent in whatever brand of flour they desire at or about the price at which the same flour is sold wholesale. So far the company have purchased about 7,000 bushels of wheat and it is coming in so fast that they fear they will not be able to store all that is offering. The top price paid is sixty-five cents, but a great deal is bought for less than 50c. Mr. Ritchie is agreeably disappointed both as to the quality and quantity of wheat offering. As the Sturgeon mill and Fraser & Co's mill have been grinding steadily ever since early fall, and Hutton's mill at St. Albert has also ground a great deal of wheat, he expected that the supply would have been more nearly exhausted before his mill began to run.

SINCE February 21st there have been shipped from Edmonton station 4 cars of hay and 2 cars of coal to Calgary and one car of coal to Innisfail.

THE Edmonton curlers who went to Calgary on the train of Friday last returned on Monday highly delighted with their reception by the Calgary men and fairly well satisfied with the results of their play. They were S. Larue lead, W. Trotter, second, R. Vance, henchman, Jas. H. Kelly, skip. On Friday night they played their first game, with W. Grants rink, twelve ends, and were beaten by 14 to 11. The same night they were entertained at dinner in Ingram's restaurant in Calgary's most hospitable style. The second game was played at 10 a. m. on Saturday, with Major Walker's rink. Fifteen ends, resulting in a tie at the fifteenth end, and Edmonton winning by one in the saw off. The third game was played on Saturday night with G. Gouin's rink, which had just returned from the Winnipeg bonspiel with high honors. The game was 14 ends and resulted in a tie at the 14th end. In the saw off the luck went against Edmonton and Calgary won by three points. There was a very large crowd of spectators present and the game was watched with the keenest interest.

HANK OLIVER, — PROPRIETOR.

EDMONTON BULLETIN, MARCH 9th, 1893.

The Northwest memorial presented by Haultain to the Ottawa government asks for a specific annual allowance of $25,000 for the Territories for the next four years, in addition to ordinary appropriations, making a total annual vote of $368,000. At the end of four years another census to be taken and a per capita allowance made based on its results. It is suggested that thereafter a census be taken every five years.

THE BULLETIN's recent article on cattle disease in Peace River was a subject of discussion before the parliamentary committee on agriculture and colonization recently, with the result that an investigation has been ordered. It is to be hoped that it will be thorough and effective. This matter was brought to the attention of the government over a year ago, by private parties, but nothing was done about it. It became necessary that such means should be taken as would compel action by those in authority.

THE Palouse, (Washington) News, of February 17th, contains an item headed, "Disgusted with Alberta," which is followed by a letter written by T. M. Smith from Agricola, dated February 10th in which Mr. Smith says he will be back in Palouse as soon as the boats run. That he is trying to sell his teams and that Palouse is good enough for him from this on. And further that all who came with him are going back to Palouse. As to whether Mr. Smith ever wrote such a letter or not does not matter. The facts are that Mrs. Smith and family are still here, that Mr. Smith is back in Palouse before the boats are running, for the purpose of straightening up his business there finally, if the note shavers and land sharks will let him, and coming to Edmonton to remain, and that those who came with Mr. Smith are not going back, nor have they any desire to go back, being well satisfied with their choice of the Edmonton district as far as they have yet seen it, as the jointly signed letter which appeared in the BULLETIN on February 28th is sufficient evidence.

The mounted police report presented to parliament gives the strength of the force as 914 officers and men and 849 horses. The suppression of prairie fires occupied the attention of a large number of the force. The large influx of settlers into the Edmonton district necessitates the establishment of new outposts. The police render all possible assistance to new comers. The commissioner advocates increased pay to officers and to a number of the non-commissioned officers. The canteen system has worked most satisfactorily. The Indians generally were well behaved during the year and have given little trouble. The distance travelled by police horses in patrolling exceeded a million and a half of miles. The introduction of the license system in the Territories led to excessive indulgence in some places until the novelty of being able to purchase liquor had worn off. On the whole the system was working more satisfactorily than the old permit system. Increased vigilance, however, is necessary on the part of the police to prevent Indians from getting intoxicated through half breeds. The commissioner has a misgiving as to the ultimate effect of the license system on the half breeds, some of whom he fears will part with their cattle and other effects in order to obtain liquor with the proceeds.

IMMIGRATION WORK.

R. McKENAN, of South Edmonton who went east as a Northwest immigration agent a few weeks ago writes from Magnetawan on February 27th: "I have been in Ottawa, Toronto and London and then went to Burk's Falls, Parry Sound district. From Burk's Falls I took the stage for Magnetawan. I have seen Mr. Irwin, one of the organizers of the Parry Sound colony of last spring. Some of the statements I have heard regarding Edmonton since I have been here took my breath away. I have been here three days and intend to remain this week. Mr. Irwin and myself drove out about twelve miles yesterday. The country is very hilly. The snow is from 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 feet deep and in some places it is impossible to travel. In some places high fences are covered with snow and in the woods were they are taking out timber they have to shovel the snow, making a long ditch. I was offered 500 acres of land with 180 acres cleared and fenced, with a good house and two large barns, with stables and sheds for $200. The buildings could not be put there for $2,000 no matter how cheap lumber is. Mr. Irwin offers his place for $2,000, and every person tells me it is the best farm in the whole district. But he cannot sell. It is well situated near a nice village, and the buildings were never put there for less than $3,000. There are a large number of people talking about coming to the Northwest this year. As far as

I can see if the people could get 50c an acre for their land and get out on the same terms as the colony of last year a very much larger colony could be formed than that of last year. I find lots of people working hard against the Northwest and telling lies about the country to prevent others from leaving, and then trying to sell out their own property and leave themselves. I leave for Ottawa in a week and for home about March 20th.

The following item from a Nova Scotia paper is of interest to Edmonton people: "Last evening the Lower Amherst, Nova Scotia, school house was filled to hear an address by Mr. Hutchings, a wealthy farmer of Edmonton, Alberta, on the 'Northwest.' George W. Forrest, Esq., M. P. P., occupied the chair. The speaker in a very pleasing manner told the audience of the vast resources of the country around Edmonton, and its eminent qualifications for mixed farming. Mr. John Tingley, who was then called upon, gave his reasons for preferring that good grazing, and fertile tillage land, to the vast sections only suitable for wheat growing." Mr. Hutchings was to speak on the Edmonton district in Newboro, Ontario, on February 16th and in Westport, Ontario, on February 17th. He also had arranged to speak at Elgin, P. O., Clear Lake, P. O., and Bell's Corner, Carlton County, Ontario. He intended starting for Edmonton about March 1st. Mr. Hutchings resides at Poplar Lake and went east as an immigration agent for St. Albert district in January, and has evidently been hustling ever since.

POLICE COURT.

On Tuesday, March 7th Mayor McCauley J. P. had before him T. W. Featherstone, charged by Alex. Doyle with taking possession of articles said to belong to Doyle, with intent to defraud. Immediately on this charge being laid, Featherstone had laid a cross charge against Doyle for stealing practically the same articles. Both cases came up for hearing at the same time and it appearing that the evidence of A. F. Doyle of North Bay was necessary to clear up the dispute, and each party claiming that A. F. Doyle would be a witness in his favor, it was arranged that Inspector Piercy should telegraph to A. F. Doyle. This was accordingly done and the telegram being in favor of Featherstone, both charges were dismissed on Thursday, when the case finally came up. H. C. Taylor for Doyle. N. D. Beck, for Featherstone.
